

SPORTS

NOW THE
BIG STUNTThe Elks and Honolulu
Will Fight It Out
Today.

The crowd at the baseball park today promises to exceed any previous gathering of the kind in Honolulu and the sport should be well worthy of the attention given it.

The oldest baseball fan cannot recall a game which gave promise of producing such a sensational struggle as the contest between the Honolulu and the Elks is likely to do.

On it hinges the championship of the season. If the Elks are victors they will have won both series and will enjoy undisputed title to the pennant. Should the Reds carry off honors today there will be a tie for premier laurels and the season will be prolonged until a series of games settling the matter has been played.

The first game, between the Kams and the Males, will start at 2 p. m., to be immediately followed by the big battle between the Red and Purple.

Both sides are keyed up to concert pitch and will go into the game this afternoon to do or die.

It was an even thing for favoritism yesterday with the Honolulu having perhaps a shade the best of the support.

Previous games played between these teams this season have resulted as follows:

Elks, 5; Honolulu, 2.
Honolulu, 6; Elks, 3.
Honolulu, 12; Elks, 9.

The Honolulu made 27 hits in the three games as against 24 by the Elks.

Yesterday's Baseball.

A good sized crowd witnessed the Winter League baseball games at Kapiolani Park yesterday.

The result of both games was a surprise to the majority of spectators, the Makikis beating the Aalas, 14 to 10 and the Iron Hammers succumbing to the Diamond Heads to the tune of 14 to 8.

Barry Complimented.

Eastern sporting men fancied Tommy Burns to win his contest with Dave Barry on the 31st ult. at Woodward's Pavilion.

California's backed Barry on the following dope: Twin Sullivan won a hair-line decision over Barry and when Sullivan and Burns hooked up it seemed Sullivan had a shade the best of it, but the decision was a draw. This contest was fought with clean break rules, a condition which favored Burns.

Mike Schreck won a decision over Burns when Tommy was an amateur and made a draw with him later; taking the two battles Burns made with Schreck and the whirlwind contest Barry put up with Schreck at Salt Lake as a line it seems Barry's work was the best.

Said the Chronicle: Doping ring contests is a hopeless task and even though Barry did lose a decision to Burns on a former occasion it does not necessarily follow that Tommy will repeat. Barry is in better shape than ever before. If Burns wins from him the Irishman will not be subdued without a struggle, as no gamier boxer lived than Dave Barry.

THE POLO
OUTLOOKMaui Expects to Do
the Trick On Next Wednesday.

Both the Oahu and Maui polo teams rested hard yesterday and today will begin to take on edge for Wednesday's struggle.

Walter Dillingham, the Oahu captain, who sustained a painful accident during Saturday's game, will, from present indications, be unable to play on Wednesday. The team will play as they finished on Saturday, George Angus substituting.

The Maui men are as right as rain after their hard game. Frank Baldwin is, it is true, nursing a skinned left hand, but this will in no way handicap his play.

The visitors are still somewhat sore at the unfortunate denouement of Saturday's game, but will play their hardest to score a decisive win on Wednesday.

The facts of the game were wired to Maui on Saturday and several messages were received by Capt. Frank Baldwin from Maui yesterday emphatically requesting him to protest the game.

The opinion around town yesterday was that Maui played in the hardest of luck in not being allowed the final goal, which would have won them the game.

THE RECKLESS CHAUFFEUR.

Under the spreading village trees

The reckless chauffeur speeds;
A very careless man is he,
No warning thing he heeds;

He turns not out for anything,
But brightens skittish steeds;
He runs down people every day

And leaves them in the dirt,
He never stops at all to see
How badly they are hurt.

Day in, day out he drives his car,
Eluding slow police,
For when he sees a bluecoat he
Just lets his speed increase

And slides right through the atmosphere
As though he rode on grease;
The copper calls, he will not stop,
But hastens in his flight;

He has the number on his car
In some way hid from sight.
The reckless chauffeur is a pest,
A blighting terror, too;

The village streets he wildly rides
In his swift auto through,
And puts the people that he meets
In one great nervous stew;

But by and by, if he keeps on,
This reckless speeding clump,
He'll end his swift career some day
And with a frightful bump.

No less than thirty-one entries were received for the "Haleiwa Stakes," played for on the Manoa links yesterday under the auspices of the Manoa Golf Club.

A most exciting and enjoyable day's sport resulted in the following eight players equalizing for the offer made by the Haleiwa Hotel at Waiakaloa, and consisting of free trips to Haleiwa and return, including railroad and hotel fares, and entrance fee to the Haleiwa tournament to be held there on Sunday, September 10. On that day one of the largest match tournaments of the season will be played off.

NEWS FROM
SEAGIRTHawaiians Fail to Figure in the National Individual.

SEAGIRT (N. J.), August 25.—The most expert of the riflemen of the United States and Hawaii proceeded today with the firing in the national individual match through a steady rain.

Captain G. W. Corwin, Seventy-first Regiment, National Guard of New York, earned the distinction of being the first competitor to win a prize, capturing a gold medal and $20 in cash provided for the rifleman making the highest aggregate score in the slow-fire portion of the national individual match. Out of about 200 points Captain Corwin scored 182.

The total scores of the leading competitors in the first four stages of the national individual match at the conclusion of the firing this evening follow:

Captain Corwin, New York, 182;
Captain McAlpin, 180; Lieutenant Rautin, Georgia, 179; Coxswain Hamilton, Navy, 178.

Maui Racing.

The Maui News in a recent editorial on the condition of horse-racing on the island, says:

The indications are that unless some decided step is taken at once the Admission day races are the last that will be run at Spreckels Park. The Maui Racing Association for many years has given annual meets at this park and the events have, considering the number of animals entered, been equal, if not superior, to those held in the "good old days" at Kapiolani Park. One thing which the Maui Association has always prided itself upon was that it stood for square sport, but unfortunately in the last few years the public interest has seemed to lag and as a consequence the members themselves have become indifferent to the extent of permitting the association to run into debt. There is in the neighborhood of two hundred dollars outstanding in delinquent dues, and it will take eight hundred dollars to put the association squarely on its feet. Kamehameha Day in Honolulu in years past was the day of all days, but with the abandonment of the race track, died a natural death, and last June was, so far as this class of sport was concerned, a hollow sham as a holiday. Shall racing on Maui become a thing of the past? Let those who own fast horses get together and see what can be done to keep alive this time honored outdoor sport.

The Futurity.

The Futurity Stakes, worth a king's ransom, and contested every year at Sheephead Bay by the crack American two-year-olds, was run on August 26 and resulted: Ormondale 1, Timber 2, Bellemer 3.

The placed jockeys, according to overnight reports, were Redfern, Hildebrand and Buchanan. The winner was favorite the night before the race at odds of 5 to 1.

The first money of nearly $50,000 goes to W. C. B. McDonough. Timber is owned by H. P. Whitney and Bellemer by F. Burlew.

Ormondale is a son of the great English horse Ormonde and was bred at the McDonough farm on the Pacific Coast.

He was a maiden, having run green in his first two starts.

Lipton and the Cup.

Sir Thomas Lipton, interviewed on his yacht Erin recently, stated: "I am quite as desirous as ever to go on with a fresh challenge for the America's cup, but it would be a futile effort under the measurement rules for the New York Yacht Club."
